Join the Evolution of Transformational Learning that Empowers Women to Activate Their Full Potential and Catapults Your Success

There's never been a more exciting time to step forward toward your dream of empowering women, creating programs where you can reach tens of thousands of people, and having a profound impact with your gifts.

The $20+ billion-dollar life-long learning and coaching industries are expanding exponentially during this time of rapid change...with Women comprising 70% of the audience!

And with the world embracing online programming like never before, it opens up a wealth of possibility for you to create scalable transformational experiences that influence the hearts and minds of women worldwide.

All indicators show that we'll continue to see unprecedented demand for in-person and online workshops, retreats, Women's Circles, training programs, conferences, and more, for decades to come.

The million dollar question is: Why are women such a large percentage of the audience?

As humanity, societies and organizations evolve in the 21st Century, millions of high growth-oriented women have a new and unique set of problems they are faced with, as well as new dreams they want to fulfill.

They are wanting to self-actualize and activate their highest potential, enabling them to become better parents, better partners, better leaders, more healthy, more prosperous, and to discover their gifts and their life purpose.

Most informational learning organizations and program creators do not identify or address the challenges and opportunities for women on their path to self-actualization.

Overcoming this significant deficit in the personal and professional development of women became my life's work, and I've relentlessly made it my mission to empower women at the highest levels so they can create extraordinary impact and transformation in the lives of clients, organizations, communities, and the world.

After decades of doctoral research in Transformational Learning, and in training more than 40,000 clients, I launched the Feminine Power Academy Transformational Facilitation Certification Program to share my proprietary methodology for breaking through the unique hidden barriers women face, and creating a pathway for them to reach their full potential.

By joining the Transformational Facilitation Program, you'll learn the ultimate blueprint for designing and creating transformational content for workshops, retreats, and more, that delivers profound, high-quality results and tremendous value.

You'll also master the transformational meta-skills that will support you to become a more effective leader, public speaker, influencer and coach that in turn translates into creating extraordinary financial success for your business.

Of equal importance, you'll also experience your own life-changing transformation that will open up new areas of opportunity as you learn the process.

You'll develop rock-solid confidence in your ability to deliver real, tangible transformational results; pride in what you have to offer and in enrolling clients; and joy in waking up every day to make a difference in the lives of your clients and the world around you.

You'll also be a part of a community of remarkable women, with similar fears and aspirations, who will link arms and uplift you on your path to becoming a successful transformational workshop leader and course creator.

I invite you to join us for the incredible opportunity to turn your passion into a career that impacts thousands of women and the world around you—in just 6 months.

The potential you sense in your clearest moments for the difference you are here to make is real, and I'm honored to share the tools, training, and support you need to actualize it.

To your greatness,

Claire

WHY FEMININE POWER TRANSFORMATIONAL FACILITATION

The Facilitation Certification Program is a 6-month training that will enable you to become a highly trained professional facilitator leading workshops, women's circles, retreats, online and in-person programs, and more, specializing in empowering self-actualizing women with leading-edge transformational techniques and Feminine Power tools.

What is Transformational Facilitation

Transformational Facilitation creates the space for the kind of learning and development that leads to a transformation of underlying meaning-making frames, and the cultivation of new ways of being that enable participants to show up in ways that make manifest the new story and new possibilities, particularly at the level of self-actualization.

The Role of a Feminine Power Transformational Facilitator

A Feminine Power Transformational Facilitator is a combination of convener, activator, catalyzer and evolutionary midwife for transformation and self-actualization.

She brings a deep awareness and understanding of how to overcome the unique challenges and opportunities facing women on their pathway to activate their full potential.

Her role is to create a committed, dynamic, generative, growth-oriented relationship between participants and herself as the container from which higher potentials for all are ignited. This activates "entelechy," questions assumptions, and catalyzes breakthroughs and growth that support participants to self-actualize.

How to launch a Transformational Experience platform and/or start a successful business without previous experience

I've learned so much through my personal experience in creating a successful multi-million-dollar business and coaching thousands of women to success, and I'm passing all of that to you through my Business Essentials training course that's included in the Facilitation Certification Program...

And I will teach you the winning formula you can use to confidently create a successful business:

- How to create offers and programs of high value and quality
- How to reach people who are interested in your service, and...
- How to enroll them

When you have those three skills, you'll be able to create things people really want to buy, informed by your understanding of how to create offers of high quality and value, and you'll be able to have enrollment conversations that are relaxed and natural as you invite people to work with you.

We will give you the step-by-step process and the templates, so you'll have the rock-solid confidence you need to make it all come together!

Is the Feminine Power Transformational Facilitation Program for You?

Yes! This is for you if...

- You are a professional seeking to make a career change that integrates your life experience and will give you a comprehensive training and credential to become a professional facilitator specializing in transformational facilitation and empowering women.
- You're already a facilitator and you want to deepen your skills by learning transformational facilitation skills and frameworks, and specialize in empowering women.
- You're a coach and you want to lead group workshops and retreats to expand your reach.
- You are an entrepreneur and want to bring out the best in others you collaborate with.
- You're a creative or a leader in any context and want to be a highly effective communicator and collaborator.
- You want to focus 100% on your own personal development and self-actualization and you realize that developing your facilitation and collaborative learning skills will enable you to attain an even deeper level of self-knowledge and mastery than you would in a simple personal-growth program.

NOTE: While this program is designed as a comprehensive certification to become a professional coach, the skills you'll cultivate in this training are integral for personal development, leadership, entrepreneurship, and many other contexts that don't require you to set up a coaching business to have tremendous value.

About 8 years ago, Dianna sensed deep down that she was meant for something more, but couldn't quite define what. But she took the leap of faith, knowing something bigger was calling her, and through the trainings she realized she was meant to help other women unlock their fullest potentials. Now she coaches women literally all over the world who want to source their authentic confidence and connection to their inner wisdom.

She also authored and published the highly praised book, The Destiny Path: A Heroine's Journey, an open-hearted account of her journey of transformation.

Adria

Adria transformed into a coach, facilitator and leader who creates tremendous value for businesses.

Adria is a partner in a company with for-profit and nonprofit divisions, using her Feminine Power Coaching and Facilitation training to empower nonprofit organizational leaders who want to expand their business and grow their teams.

She now helps organizations grow from $10,000 in revenue to become $500k companies.

Adria is also transforming racism in the world, and she won an Outstanding Achievement Award from Feminine Power for all her contributions over the past 10 years.

Ellie

Ellie stepped into her leadership and created a thriving coaching & facilitation business with many long-term clients.

After getting divorced and moving back to Canada unemployed, Ellie found herself deeply reflecting about who she wanted to be and how she wanted to create a new home and life for herself and her two children.

She decided to take the Feminine Power Professional Programs, and quickly realized that her unique gifts and talents were needed in the global leadership community.

Now Ellie's coaching business has evolved beyond one-on-one sessions and she leads successful retreats, speaking engagements, and higher-level facilitation sessions. She focuses on practicing professionals who are facing their own crossroads and who want to shift their breakdowns into breakthroughs to a new and thriving life.
