

FEMININE POWER

TRANSFORMATIONAL

LEADERSHIP

CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

CLAIRE ZAMMIT, PH.D.

Discover and Launch Your “Great Work” into the World in 9 Months!

Are you feeling excited and maybe even a bit anxious to discover your purpose and launch your “Great Work” into the world?

Maybe you have a big idea, book, online course, program, workshop, speaker series, project, or business idea percolating or in the early stages of development, but just don’t know how to bring it to life with the horsepower it needs to ignite your impact, influence and success.

Our Transformational Leadership Program was designed to be your incubator, runway and launch pad.

It’s designed for you if you know or sense you have something to offer but you’re not yet sure how to bring it forward...

Or if you’re clear about what you have to offer but you haven’t yet successfully launched your work into the world...

Or if you’re wanting to make a quantum leap to expand your reach, revenue and impact.

You might be thinking that what holds you back is a lack of confidence, self-belief, or motivation...

Yet what I’ve discovered over the years is that the reason smart, conscious, gifted women most frequently get stuck is this: a lack of clarity.

A lack of clarity about...

- Who you’re here to serve
- The problems you’re here to solve
- How to develop the skills you need to succeed
- How to identify and release the inner barriers holding you back
- How to create a platform that will enable you to do the work you’re here to offer the world
- AND how to create a support structure to launch your work in the world.

I created our 9-Month Transformational Leadership program to address all of these areas and create a comprehensive program that will support you to discover your “GREAT WORK.”

You’ll also gain access to the optimal support structure and training to vision, create and launch a platform from which to make your greatest contribution.

Imagine just 9 months from now what it will feel like to...

- Finally have the clarity and confidence to step forth into your largest life...
- Be crystal clear about what you’re here to offer and who you’re here to serve...
- Have launched your dream platform such as writing a book, creating a project, launching a podcast, creating a signature coaching program, speaking or workshops, and more, that position you as the go-to person in the world to offer your “Great Work...”
- Have developed powerful messaging skills that “presence” your ideas in ways that move hearts and minds, and that magnetizes your destiny audience...
- Have rich “Power Partnerships” with others with high-level collaborative skills, including giving and receiving valuable feedback, negotiation, conflict resolution, and more.

I believe that when women rise and express our values, vision and voice, humanity will be lifted up and our highest collective destiny will be realized.

Your gifts and talents are needed during this time of rapid change and reinvention, and I want to make sure you get the skills training and support you need to become who you were meant to be in this life!

To find out more about the curriculum, tuition, timing, and payment-plan options, I encourage you to take that first step toward realizing your dreams today and schedule an appointment with an enrollment specialist.

To your greatness,

Claire

WHY THE FEMININE POWER TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATION?

The Feminine Power Transformational Leadership Program is uniquely designed for your success

The Feminine Power Transformational Leadership program is designed to be a potent incubator for your creative potentials, with an intention to catalyze your unique leadership destiny calling and contribution through your participation.

The Program experience creates a high-impact learning community container and network grounded in a radical “growth mindset” that will support you to develop the Transformational Leadership skills and strategies of impact, influence and success that support self-actualizing women to rise into their greatness.

You will learn how to become the type of feminine leader whose presence and skills can create the conditions to call forth and ignite the higher potentials of individuals, groups, organizations, communities, cultures and, ultimately, our world.

You’ll also develop the core skills you need to create and launch a platform from which you can share your gifts for the rest of your life.

How you can successfully launch a Transformational Experience platform and/or start a successful business, even if you don’t know where to start

In the Transformational Leadership Program, we provide you with the structure to...

- Develop the clarity you need to become an expert in transformational change.
- Discover your “Great Work.”
- Develop messaging and ways to communicate that resonate and ignite the hearts and minds of your audiences.
- Create a Leadership Destiny Project you may launch into the world.
- Develop a platform that positions you to be a recognized expert in your field.
- Gain the business skills to create a livelihood that supports you to be “all in” with the work you’re here to do.

Bringing Your “Great Work” to Life Through Your Leadership Destiny Project

During the program, you’ll have the opportunity to take on a Leadership project that will launch your “Great Work” into the world. You will have time during the program to plan, create and complete your project.

This project will support you to develop your leadership skills. You will have mentors, peers, and a site of action where you’re applying the skills and working with people. You will be developing collaborative skills by being in your Launch Pod (see more on Launch Pods in the following section.)

It’s a skills-based program, so you will be learning concepts and big ideas. However, ultimately we’re going to be focusing on creating the conditions for you to develop and apply these skills, so that you leave the program having catalyzed the contribution you’re here to make.

Launching Your “Great Work” into the World Through Your Destiny “Launch Pod” Mastermind Group

During the program, you will have the opportunity to join a “LAUNCH POD” Mastermind group. This carefully assigned group will consist of 6 - 9 participants, all of whom will make a commitment to meeting a minimum of 3 times a month for 9 months.

Your Launch Pod will be a container for you to develop your plans to launch and expand your business, work in the world, share your progress, create accountability, and ask for thought-partnership from one another.

The purpose of the Launch Pod is to...

- Provide accountability, feedback, support, and inspiration, so you can apply your learnings to a concrete site of action, such as launching a business, a project, or your work into the world.
- Amplify your creative power.
- Create a safe place where we can develop and cultivate relationships, as well as collaborative leadership skills.
